- Maximizing the Effectiveness of Multi-Stakeholder Initiatives in Health IT
 - Anthony Schueth, Founder, CEO and Managing Partner, Point-of-Care Partners

There are many multi-stakeholder initiatives (MSIs) like Da Vinci, CodeX, Gravity, Commonwell, FHIR at Scale Taskforce (FAST), etc and they're increasingly important players in propelling the worlds of health and human services into the 21st Century. When they're done right, MSIs are not only highly effective, but are potentially the best means for addressing specific, complex problems that involve multiple, cross-sector stakeholders. That said, forming, governing, and conducting the work of an MSI isn't simple; indeed, in a sense, it's more of an art than a science. This session will examine the lessons learned from our extensive experience working with, advising and leading MSIs, and offer tangible guidance on how to increase their effectiveness and likelihood of success.

- Automated Prior Authorization: Addressing Less Complex Cases without Human Interaction
 - Nikki Henck, FHIR Prior Authorization & Utilization Management Product Manager, Smile Digital Health
 - Rob Reynolds, Director of Product Clinical Reasoning, Smile Digital Health

Educational Session Sponsored by  smile
DIGITAL HEALTH

Learn how FHIR capabilities such as structure data capture, clinical quality language and business process automation tools can be used to automate prior authorizations and deliver real-time decisions. By tapping into its own utilization management experience, payers can deploy FHIR and business process automation to rapidly approve certain kinds of less complex cases (and complex cases as well) without human intervention, delivering immediate turnaround of requests. Real-time decisioning decreases provider burden, increases provider satisfaction, and reduces payer UM costs.
